Amber-Lee is a paralegal at the Tuckers Kent branch, currently working on Crown Court casework under the supervision of Nicola Hall.

After recently completing her Law Degree (LLB), from Royal Holloway University of London - where she was an active member of the Law Society and 93% Club, Amber-Lee became drawn to a future in Criminal Defense.

Prior to joining Tuckers as a paralegal, she spent part of her summer assisting and shadowing Nicola Hall at both the Magistrates and Crown Court, gaining valuable experience across a range of serious and non-serious offenses. She also worked as a paralegal in a large Civil Litigation firm.

Inspired by the Innocence Project, Amber-Lee is dedicated to advocating for individual rights, their access to justice and fair representation.

She prides herself in her passion for criminal justice and her unwavering commitment to achieving the best outcomes for her clients.

Amber-Lee looks to qualify as a Solicitor and is committed to expanding her expertise, to deliver legal support to those most vulnerable.
