Andre Clovis joined Tuckers Solicitors as a Consultant Solicitor in 2007 bringing with him a wealth of experience and expertise to the Police Actions department.

Andre practice is victim orientated. He specializes in representing individuals bringing misconduct complaints against police officers, including appeals to the Independent Police Complaints Commission and bringing civil claims against police forces in a wide variety of circumstances. This includes cases where the complainant alleges or has been a victim of assault, false imprisonment, and trespass to property, malicious prosecution and misfeasance. Andre is also involved in cases involving breach of HRA Article 2 [right to life], 3 [right not to be subjected to inhumane or degrading treatment], Article 5 [right to liberty], Article 8 [right to private family life] and a cutting edge case around Article 10 [freedom of expression] and Article 11 [right to assembly].

Andre also undertakes inquests, notably those involving mental health deaths following police contact or following high speed police pursuits.

As well as bringing claims against the police, Andre has extensive skill and familiarity in assisting victims of serious crime. He also represents the families of victims of serious crime and murder, preparing victim impact statements guiding families through the criminal prosecution process. This is of particular importance where their relationship with the police has broken down. Notably, Andre acted for the mothers' of Toni-Ann Byfield and Rochelle Holness and currently Andre acts for the family of Darren & Deslandes. In tandem with Frances Frost he represents these victims in bringing claims for compensation to the Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority (CICA).

Additionally, Andre represents clients seeking compensation under S133 CJA for miscarriages of justice whereby they have been wrongfully convicted in light of serious defaults by prosecuting authorities. Andre acted for Bobby Gul & Kamran Khan who each recovered substantial damages.

Andre is an active member of the Police Action Lawyers Group and the Inquest Lawyers Group. He drafted the response for Liberty to the proposals pertaining to the introduction of the IPCC and was a Peer Reviewer for the Legal Services Commission.
