Indy qualified as a solicitor 2006 and has experience of defending a full spectrum of offences including white collar / murder / rape / robbery / complex fraud / motoring matters / health and safety.

Indy has been qualified higher court advocate since 2010, and duty solicitor and police station accredited representative since 2009

Indy is a meticulous, quick-thinking and pragmatic advocate who prides himself on his ability to build and maintain a professional relationship with those who instruct him throughout each stage of the litigation process.

Indy has been recognised for his personable nature and adopting a sensitive manner towards the needs of his clients. In particular he is very good with clients who are vulnerable or who have mental health difficulties. Just some of his client reviews have been as follows:

'Was so good and honest. One of the best solicitors. I highly recommend you him'

'Mr Inderdeep Bhomra was fantastic, he was friendly and understanding in his approach, providing sound advice on how he would approach the case. He is a charismatic, confident and knowledgeable individual, and this was made evident on the day of the case. He put forward a case very well, and was able to get a result much better than I could have expected.'

'Tucker Solicitors have been a great firm and totally lived up to the expectations i had of them and more. More so , my lawyer Inderdeep Bhomra, who represented myself, was very comforting and professional , he achieved a amazing result for myself through his hard work, determination and upmost professionalism. He was punctual, supportive and always remained calm and got my case thrown out. I am 100% eternally grateful for his work and I would most definitely recommend this firm to anyone out there looking for legal representation.'

'Indy was very kind, non judgmental and efficient. I was massively stressed out and he helped ease my mind about the situation. He was very professional and got the lowest possible outcome I could've hoped for. He was easy to talk to and I would definitely recommend him.'
