Kieron has been working locally in Criminal Defence for many years now and prides himself on his local knowledge and connections.

In 2002 he joined a Hastings law firm and worked as a clerk in the criminal department. In 2005 he became an accredited police station advisor after which he completed a Graduate Diploma in Law from Sussex University. He studied for his LPC at The University of Law in Bloomsbury, London.

He specialises in all criminal defence work at the Police station, Magistrates Court and Crown Court matters, combining a professional analysis of cases with a personable and friendly manner.

Kieron proudly hails from the Hastings area where he went to school and enjoyed many years of playing for the local rugby team.
