Kosar is a Solicitor and Public Law Supervisor in the Civil Liberties and Human Rights Department. She joined Tuckers Solicitors in 2016.

Kosar has worked on a wide range of complex litigation across Public, Civil and Prison law matters. She has worked on a number of high-profile cases involving claims of assault, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution and breaches of the Human Rights Act.

Kosar has also worked on a number of Judicial Reviews which sought to challenge unlawful decisions made by state bodies, and is passionate about representing bereaved families in inquest proceedings following deaths in custody.

Kosar also represents a broad spectrum of individuals in a wide range of allegations including murder, sexual offences, robbery, firearms and terrorism, throughout the criminal justice process; from their first contact with the police, to the conclusion of their case at the Magistrates Court, Crown Court and /or Court of Appeal.

Kosar is passionate about upholding the rights of the most vulnerable in society and ensuring that state bodies and officials are properly held to account when abusing their powers.

Kosar is a member of the Police Actions Lawyers Group, Young Legal Aid Lawyers, Inquest Lawyers Group and Association of Prison Lawyers.
