Salina Bismillah is undertaking her training contract with Tuckers Solicitors. She has been working exclusively with criminal defence as part of a team, specialising in serious crime and high profile cases. She has been involved with assisting with the preparation of court martial cases and cases involving serious sexual offences, Grievous Bodily Harm, Assault and Theft related offences.

Salina has been attending clients in prison to obtain their instructions and manages the day to day running of the case files. She is supervised by Mr Julian Young, who has been imparting his extensive experience and wealth of knowledge. She is keen and works hard towards achieving the best result. She has been able to develop good relationships with both staff and clients.

Salina will be commencing her next three seats in Actions Against the Police, Prison Law and Immigration Law. Salina is due to qualify in June 2017.

Education: LPC from the University of Law, and LLB from Brunel University
